

BLIXEN

Karen Blixen, the controversial and charismatic Danish writer, today – 50 years after her death – still manages to fascinate the most of us. Choreographer and soloist Gregory Dean now depicts her unique life in a new ballet named Blixen at the Old Stage in The Royal Danish Theatre. The ballet pays tribute to her captivating life by telling a wonderful story based on her childhood, family life, marriage and life on the African coffee farm in Kenya.

The package includes:
